WINES close to your heart

*Exploring
the PGI Wines
of Central Greece*

We deeply believe in the uniqueness of our PGI wines.

There are local varieties with distinct aromas and tastes, there are skilled winemakers who invest their knowledge, labor, and love for the vine, there is plenty of sun, beautiful sloping vineyards, and a tradition of cultivating excellent wines for thousands of years in this land of Delphi that was considered as “The Navel of the Earth”. Today, we would like to share this unexplored treasure with people living or doing business in the UK and we hope they will appreciate and love our PGI wines along with the myths, ancient history, and exceptional quality they carry with them in this new trip from the Region of Central Greece to the island of Great Britain.
